KUG Oriental Academy

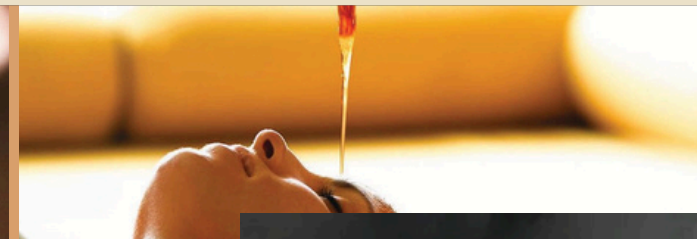

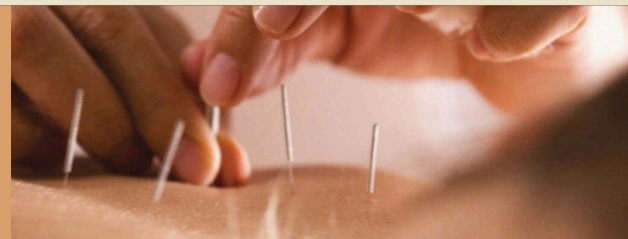

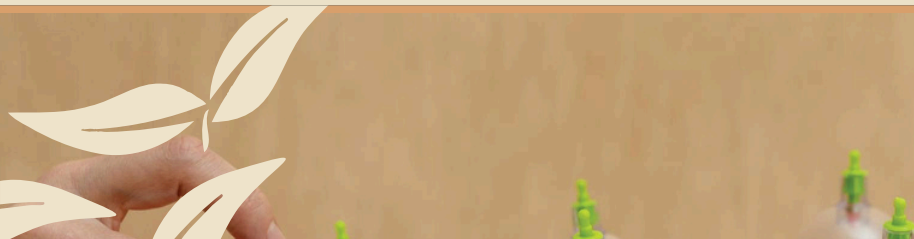

of Alternative Medicines Allied Sciences Foundation

At the KUG Oriental Academy of Alternative Medicines Allied Sciences Foundation, our mission is to provide exceptional education in alternative medicine and allied sciences, rooted in tradition and enriched with modern insights.

Our vision is to nurture a community of compassionate healers and practitioners who harness the power of alternative medicine to improve the health and well-being of individuals and communities worldwide.

Health. Education. Job.

The KUG Oriental Academy of Alternative Medicines & Allied Sciences is a South Indian non-profit institution focused on health, education, and career development. Built on three pillars—Drugless Health (natural therapies), Health Awareness through Education, and Job-Oriented Courses—it offers affordable, practical education, especially for underprivileged communities. With nationwide exam centers and plans for global expansion, the academy promotes alternative medicine, preventive health, and employability while upholding the right to education and vocational training.

"We aim at inspiring our students to dream more, learn more, do more, and become more in their repective journeys of life".

Ummer Gurukkal
Director, KUG Oriental Academy
